FIRED SEVERAL SHOTS AT BURGLAR, BUT HE ESCAPED

COALVILLE, Oct. 24.-An unsuccessful attempt was made early yesterday morn-ing to break into the office of the Coniville Co-op, in which the large rafe is located. About I o'clock a man was at empting to pry up the windows and under the window awoke G. Y. Bullock and J. H. Wilde, who were sleeping in the room. They jumped out of bed and grabbed a revolver each. It was a beautiful mocalight night and the man comid be easily seen outside. Bullock and Wilde quietly got out of the back door and told him to throw up his nands, but he paid no attention to them and it out up the road. Mr. Bullock fired a shot at life, but missed. In return two shots were fred from across the street by two pals of the robber who were on guard. All three were going up the street at a lively gait, with Bullock and Wilde in pursuit. The inter fired several more shots, but without result.

This is the fourth or fifth attempted burglary in Cosletile of his, and, from the manner of the work and the tools captured, it is thought that the same men have misce all of the sitempts.

The men broke into the section-house and procured the tools which they were working with. The tools were left by the window. nd J. H. Wilde, who were sleeping to

Fred Birch, aged about 5 years, eneased in loading mining props in the depot yard, while waiting for the engine to switch the car when the men could work, was sitting on a pile of timbers close to the track. The jar of the engine as it passed shock the timbers and the pile rolled down, carrying Birch almost under the wheels of the locomostre.
The siens on the engine struck him between the shoulders. Before the engine could be stopped it had turned him over several times and his body was badly bruised. The man who was working with him grabbed him or he would have been under the wheels. He is laid up and it will be several weeks before he will be entirely well again.
